CONGRESS HEARS BOOST FOR SOUTH

Ransdell Tells of Her Resources and Invites the Immigrants.

PREDICTS HIGHER PRICES

Congressman Discussed the Race Question and Solution of the Problem—Tells of Diversity of Crops.

Washington, June 14.—With "Go South, Young Men and Immigrants," as his key-note, Representative Ransdell, of Louisiana, today addressed the House, as a sort of advance agent for the Southland in general, and Louisiana in particular.

He based his remarks on the exodus of many of "our best citizens into the British possessions north of the United States, and the rapid congestion of our cities caused by the growing unpopularity of life on the farm, and by the large influx of foreign immigrants, many of whom settle in cities." As a remedy for all these problems, he suggested to the House that the persons concerned should be induced to come to the South.

"In my judgment," said the Louisiana statesman, in discussing the drift of people from the farms to the cities, "this is one of the fruitful causes of the high price of living. All food products—and the food we eat is our heaviest item of expense—comes from the ground or the sea, and when the number of consumers who dwell in cities disproportionately exceeds the producers in the country, it naturally results in high prices.

"If the relative growth of population in city and country remains the same for the next decade, and production of food be not materially increased in some very unlooked for way, I see no reason why the price of edibles should decrease, but rather expect an increase," he predicted.

In this connection, Representative Ransdell said that "what is happening to us is also happening to the nations of Europe."

He also showed that during the last five years 312,614 citizens, carrying with them material wealth in money and property valued at over $312,000,000, "to say nothing of the immense potential value of each of these splendid people" emigrated from the United States into Canada. He commented at length upon the concentration of aliens in the cities of the United States.

"The Southern States would gladly furnish homes to every one of our own citizens," said he, "who have gone to Canada or contemplate such a move, and would welcome all the boys and girls who have left to seek unfamiliar work in congested cities. Moreover, we can supply farms to a great many of the foreigners who seek our shores, and we are really anxious to receive all good ammigrants of the Teutonic, Scandinavian, British and French races."

Then he entered into a description of what the South offered.

A few years ago, he remarked, the Southerners were nearly all farmers, and the one crop was cotton. "its scepter was seized some time ago by King Corn, and is now firmly held by that monarch," he added.

But corn and cotton are not the only crops grown in the South, Mr. Ransdell gave the House to understand. He told of a great change that had come over it, and the present practice of diversification of crops.

With this diversity of crops, the Congressman painted the South as a fine place for domestic animals. He grew real enthusiastic over the advantages of "my own Louisiana for the lowly porker."

The farms were not the only things the South had to offer, Mr. Ransdell informed the House. He suggested that an inspection of mining, mercantile and manufacturing statistics would show that.

He challenged the statements that the South was not a healthy section. The whites, he said, were just as healthy as whites in any other portion of the country. "The negro race is not healthy," he admitted, "for reasons which the scope of this speech prevents me from discussing."

Speaking of the negroes, the Congressman had something interesting to say about the race question.

"Some one asks about the race question in the South," said Mr. Ransdell, "whether the Caucasion and the negro can dwell together in harmony. I unhesitatingly answer that they can and do live in the most perfect amity, each race pursuing its own methods and working out its own destiny in friendly co-operation and competition, but without social commingling. The negro question is settling itself, and under the guidance of a wise Providence the negroes not only of the South, but throughout the entire Union, are destined to fill their places and do their part in kindly friendship with their white brethren. In many localities of the South there are very few negroes, and prospective immigrants can regulate this question entirely by settling in colonies, a plan which has very much to recommend it.

"But even without colonies there is nothing in the negro question to cause trouble. As a matter of fact, there are innumerable white farmers scattered throughout the South, and it goes without saying that the majority of the people in cities and in business pursuits are whites."

OUSTED TWO FROM BRIBERY HEARING

Propose to Prevent Any Undue Influence Reaching Chicago Jury.

PROBING ILLINOIS BRIBERY

Progress of Trial of Representative Browne—Attack Made on Character of White—Damaging Evidence Procured.

Chicago, June 14.—The expulsion of two spectators from the trial of State Representative Lee O'Neil Browne, charged with paying $1,000 to Representative Charles A. White to vote for William Lorimer for United States Senator, today gave emphasis to State's Attorney Wayman's declaration that he would prevent any possibility for undue influence to reach the jury.

The men removed were Ernest Krulewich, a Chicago politician, and Henry Wagner. The latter owes his embarrassment to having made audible expression of a belief in the guilt of the defendant. Mr. Wayman said that during the trial of "Skinny" Madden a labor leader, charged with extortion, Krulewich had brought suspicion upon himself by shaking hands with Madden in front of the jury. Krulewich was served with a subpoena to appear before a grand jury tomorrow.

The defense on cross examination, began an attack on the character of White with the ultimate design, it is said, of charging that the present allegations grow out of an unsuccessful black-mailing scheme of White's. Wishing to introduce some of White's letters written to Browne, W. S. Forrest, chief of counsel for the defendant, ran against a snag. The court ruled that before they could be accepted as evidence, White must first identify the letters. White's evasive replies visibly nettled Browne's attorneys.

Eventually two letters were identified. In one of them, written subsequently to the election of Senator Lorimer, White said: "I have only 90 cents in the world. If you will fill in the enclosed promissory note for whatever money you will loan me, I will be glad."

The note made out for $50 also was placed in evidence. Other notes aggregating $100, were also introduced. Some of the expressions used in letters which the defense attempted to introduce were:

"By the grace of God, every cent you have let me have I will return."

"I have my ring in pawn for a few dollars."

"The future is sure to bring surprises. Do not be surprised at anything I may do in the future."

By this expression the defense will argue White was attempting to blackmail Browne.

A letter written by White to Senator Lorimer was likewise read to the jury. White wrote that he was about to place his experiences as a legislator before the public. He said he had been offered $2.25 a word for it.

Mr. Forest asked him if he had submitted his story to certain magazines, which he named. Witness admitted that he had.

"Did you offer it to the Chicago Tribune?"

"Yes, sir."

White produced his contract, by which the Tribune agreed to pay him $3,250 for his story of the alleged bribery. Part of this sum, White said, had already been paid him.

The cross-examination is expected to continue all day tomorrow.

TOXAWAY RECEIVERSHIP CASE.

Hearing Before Special Master—Compensation for Receiver.

Asheville, N. C., June 14.—Special Master J. Haywood Parker recently appointed by Judge J. C. Pritchard in the Toxaway receivership case had a hearing today. His final report is expected to be made at the close of this week.

The special master appointed to name proper compensation for the receiver from the Toxaway company, A. H. Burroughs, for whose removal the defendants in the case recently petitioned Judge Pritchard.

While asking for the receiver's removal the defendants stand in the way thereof by objecting to the receiver's compensation which he (the receiver) places at $5,000. The defendants claim that he is not entitled to more than $1,500.

He had been in failing health for more than a year, was 69 years old, a member of the Tenth North Carolina Artillery, "Manly's Battery," a brave soldier and an excellent citizen. REFUSE TO ADMIT TO OFFICIAL BOARD

Vanderbilt Trustees Elected to General Conference at Asheville, N. C.

WILL NOT RECOGNIZE THEM

Vacancies Filled by Themselves—Bishop A. W. Wilson Resigns—Advanced Ground is Taken on General Questions.

Nashville, Tenn., June 14.—By a vote of 19 to 8, the Board of Trustees of Vanderbilt University this afternoon refused to recognize the three men elected by the General Conference of the M. E. Church, South, at the Asheville meeting, to fill the vacancies on the board. The rejected candidates are Nat. E. Harris, Augusta, Ga.; A. Godbey, Austin, Texos, and A. W. Biggs, Memphis, Tenn.

The Board of Trust later elected the following eight members, filling that body to its full quota: Claude Waller, Nashville; R. F. Jackson, Nashville; Bishop W. B. Murray, Jackson, Miss.; J. A. Robbins, McKenzie, Tenn.; Bishop W. R. Lambuth, Nashville; W. C. Ratcliffe, Little Rock; W. R. Millsaps, Jackson, Miss.; Allen R. Carter, Louisville.

Following the vote refusing to seat the conference elected members, Bishop A. W. Wilson tendered his resignation as a member of the board, which was accepted. By refusing to recognize the selections made by the Methodist Conference, the Board of Trust put itself on record as standing for a self perpetuating board.

The board at its meeting this morning repealed a clause in the by-laws which provided that elections to its membership must be approved by the General Education Board of the Methodist church. In taking this step the majority of the board claimed that the clause had already been nullified by the General Conference through the course pursued at the Asheville meeting. It would not be a surprise to see the institution of mandamus proceedings to compel the board of trust to recognize as members those men designated as such by the General Conference.

AFTER PLUMBING TRUST.

Being Investigated by the Department of Justice—Charges.

Washington, June 14.—What is commonly designated the plumbing trust is under investigation by the Department of Justice. The so-called combination has various ramifications and one feature of it has been popularly called the hardware or the bath tub trust. The Attorney General said today he was not prepared to announce whether any prosecutions would grow out of the investigation.

Numerous complaints have been made alleging generally the existence of a combination to maintain prices. One of these was to the effect that as a result of the operations of the trust jobbers who sold to retailers at cut prices were cut off from plumbers supplies.

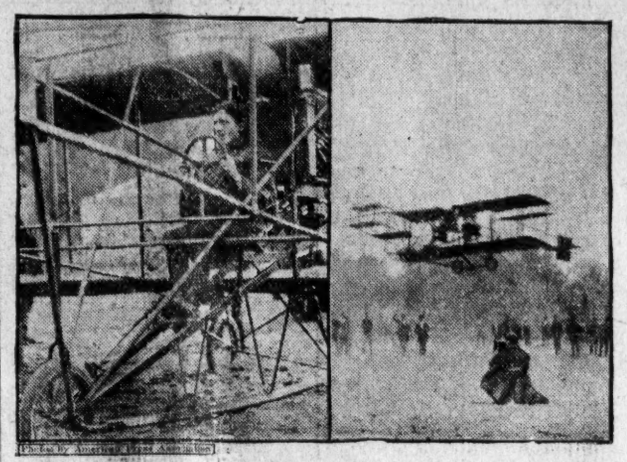
Aviator C. K. Hamilton and His Flying Ship



Photos by American Press Association.

New York, June 14.—Charles K. Hamilton, the other young aviator whose remarkable cross-country flight yesterday to Philadelphia and return supplied the world of aviation with a new sensation in new records, is today looking for more aerial spaces to conquer. This morning found the daring aeroplanist refreshed by a good night's rest after his nerve-racking trip and already planning further conquests of the air.

Hamilton is known to have one great ambition. It is to beat the record Paulhan established for a continuous cross-country flight. The 117 miles without a stop made by the French aviator in his journey from London to Manchester still stares the ambitious American in the face. Hamilton's 88-mile mark of yesterday falls considerably short of it, but he would have bettered it, he fully believes, had not trouble developed with his spark plugs, compelling his untimely descent in the Amboy marshes, when nearing this city on the return trip and preventing his making a circuit around the city which would have added some forty miles to his journey's length. It is known that Hamilton intends at the first opportunity to undertake a flight which will give him the chance which ill-fortune spoiled yesterday.

Hamilton, according to revised official figures, was in the air three hours and thirty-four minutes, maintaining an average speed from New York to Philadelphia of 46.92 miles an hour and from Philadelphia to New York 51.36 miles.

CONTROLS BIG SPRAY MILLS

Chicago Company Closed Big Deal for Cotton Mill Stocks—Acquired Both Wool and Cotton Mill Properties.

Charlotte, N. C., June 14.—Probably the largest deal in cotton mill stocks that has ever been made in the South, has just been consummated by which Marshall Field & Company, of Chicago, secure the controlling interest in several mills at Spray, this State.

The purchase includes the control of the American Warehousing Company, mammoth finishing plant, warehouses, etc.; the Spray Woolen Mills, one of the largest wool manufacturing concerns in the world; the Lily Mills; the Rhode Island Company, and the Nantucket Mills. Through the deal Field & Co., acquire control of practically all the manufacturing plants at Spray, except three, these being the Spray Cotton Mills, the Morehead Cotton Mills, and the Leaksville Cotton Mills. The purchase price was not disclosed.

The newly purchased textile plant of the Field Company embrace some of the best managed and most thoroughly equipped mills in the State.

HUNTING FOR CHARLTON.

Husband of Woman Found in Italian Lake—Traveler Tells.

Como, Italy, June 14.—Although the police authorities have sent out requests to the authorities at various ports to watch for a man answering the description of Porter Charlton, the search of Lake Como, where the body of Charlton's wife was found in a trunk a few days ago, has not been abandoned. Nothing was discovered today, however, to give the slightest clue to the whereabouts of the missing man or to strengthen the theory that he also was murdered.

It has been learned that Charlton wrote on June 6th to the Russian, Ispolatoff, who is under arrest that he and his wife were leaving for the Rievera. On that afternoon he went to the postoffice and made inquiries with reference to steamers leaving for America. He posted the letter addressed to Ispolatoff without a stamp. This is taken as an indication that he was excitedly agitated. It was on the evening of the same day he questioned a fishman near the spot where the trunk was found as to the depth of the water in the lake.

A traveler who left here for Basel, Switzerland, on the day the crime was discovered, has reported to the police that a passenger in the carriage on which he traveled answered the description of Charlton. Efforts have been made to locate this man, but so far without result.

PATIENT COMMITS SUICIDE.

Inmate of Insane Asylum at Raleigh Hangs Himself.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 14.—James H. Lambeth, a patient in the State hospital for the Insane here, committed suicide today by hanging himself with a sheet, which he tied to a heavy wire guard at the window of his ward, fastening the other end about his neck with a noose and jumping from a window sill.

Death was caused by strangulation. He was all but dead when discovered. Lambeth was thought to be too weak to do himself violence. He left a note not made public, but it is understod to have been an insane sort of reference to supposed family trouble.

STATE TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY

Four Hundred Present for Opening Session at Asheville, N. C.—Address by Prof. McMurray—The Preliminary Session.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., June 14.—With an attendance of about 400 the North Carolina State Teachers' Assembly convened here for a four days' session tonight in the auditorium. The address of welcome was by Prof. R. J. Tighe, of the city schools, and the response by Dr. D. H. Hill, of the A. & M. College, president of the association.

Many came in on the trains tonight too late to attend the opening session and a downpour of rain kept some away from the hall. Prof Frank M. McMurry, of the Teachers' College, Columbia University, New York, made a stirring address tonight in which he would have modern schools develop character in students through studies in the school room. He believed the day had arrived when the pupils would no longer study something because it was "a mind trainer;" it must have some utility in solving the problems of life; also the day had arrived where the cry for "morel education" must be heeded. The thought of his address was that instruction in schools can be subordinated to the development of character, if we connect up with present day problems. In illustrating this he took history which he declared was useless unless it aided in solving present day problems. The study of such subjects as "heat" should be so directed as to show its application directly to life, thus developing conduct in pupils and, therefore, character. In discussing the character of teachers he said the "largest single duty of any teacher is to cultivate a close friendship with each pupil and to observe the opportunity to use this influence." In concluding he declared that a study of morals was useless for any study called "morals" would be in the abstract lifeless, as such things could best be gotten by application of knowledge to life.

The general work of the assembly begins tomorrow morning when W. J. Spellman, of the United States Department of Agriculture, will be one of the speakers.

LYNCHING IN ARKANSAS.

Negro Taken From Officers by Mob and Shot.

Star City, Ark., June 14.—Will Hunter, a negro, was taken from the officers by a mob last night and lynched. The negro had just been arrested for entering the room of a white woman near Garnett, Ark., a few days ago.

After overpowering the officers the mob took the negro to the woods nearby and after hanging to a limb of a tree, riddled his body with bullets, after which it dispersed.

So quietly did the mob do its work that nothing was known of the lynching until the body of the negro was found still hanging to the tree today.

Richmond, Va., June 14.—Richmond held one of the quietest elections in its history today. Rain helped to make the vote also, one of the lightest on record. The choice was for aldermen and councilmen and the Democratic nominees had no opposition, except on the newly annexed Washington ward, which was formerly the city of Manchester. Here there but they were snowed under by the regular Democratic nominees.

HASKELL IS CITED TO FEDERAL COURT

Okladoma Governor Must Show Cause For Attempt to Move Capital.

TWO CAPITALS RECOGNIZED

Officer was Repulsed by the Governor When He Attempted to Serve Citation—Guards Portect the State House Records.

Oklahoma City, Okla., June 14.—Deputy U. S. Marshal Chris Madsen, on Gov. Haskell to appear in the on Gov. Hoskell to appear in the Federal court to show cause why he should attempt to remove the State capital from Guthrie.

Last night, Deupty U. S. Marshal Heck Thomas was repulsed by the governor, because of his attitude. The governor had snatched a paper from the hand of Sheriff Mahoney, of Logan county.

"This is not Mahoney," said Thomas. "This is the governor of Oklahoma, I would have you know," said Haskell.

The subpoena was taken away unserved, after the governor had turned his back on the officer.

A different version of the incident is given by Deputy Thomas, who was accompanied by Deputy Marshal Jacobson. According to Thomas' story, the governor, when informed by Jacobson that he had papers from the Federal court for him, replied:

"I don't care who you are; I am the Governor of Oklahoma. Get out of here, or I will kick you down stairs."

Jacobson walked down the stairs of the hotel where the governor made his headquarters.

That Oklahoma has a dual capital is no longer in doubt

Governor Haskell and Secretary of State Cross are transacting official business under the original State seal at Oklamoha City, while Assistant Secretary of State Leo Meyer has a duplicate seal and is transacting official business at Guthrie.

The Republican State Committee today recognized the two capitals by filing at both Guthrie and Oklahoma City referendum petitions. The duplicate of State was used in Guthrie.

The citations for Gov. Haskell and other State officers to appear in the Federal court and show cause why they should attempt to remove the capital of the State are returnable on Friday.

Guards are stationed about the Guthrie "State House" to prevent the removal of records of other State property. Labor Commissioner Daigherity was searched today for State papers before he was allowed to leave Guthrie. Mayor Farquharson said he had given no orders for the search and regarded the act as censurable.

All State officers, except Governor Haskell and Secretary of State Bill Cross went to Guthrie today for the arguments on the removal of the capital to Oklahoma City. Judge Huston took the matter under advisement, and will probably render a decision tomorrow. With an exception, so far as can be ascertained, the State officers recognize Oklahoma City as the capital, and business transacted in Guthrie bears an Oklahoma City date.

TRIAL OF PROF. HARRIS.

Maxheimer Told Two Different Stories of The Murder.

Manassas, Va., June 14.—In the new trial of Prof. J. D. Harris for the murder of W. A. Thompson, editor of the Warrenton Virginian, last Summer, members of the grand jury which indicted Harris testified today that Irving Maxheimer, brother-in-law of the dead man, said when giving testimony before them that he had seen no pistol or the glitter of a pistol during the struggle which culminated in Thompson's death.

This was contradictory to the testimony given by Maxheimer on the stand yesterday when he said he saw a revolver in Harris' hand when he was fighting with Thompson in the Warrenton street and that he took the weapon from him after the shooting H. H. King testified that he saw Maxheimer endeavoring to separate the combatents and saw the revolver in Harris' hand.

W. R. Lucas and E. M. Alexander, proprietors of a Warrenton Hotel, told of having seen Thompson at the hotel the evening of the shooting and they believed him to have been somewhat under the influence of liquor. This was corroborated by testimony of Police Sergeant Shirley, of Warrenton. Several witnesses related details of an attack made upon Harris by Thompson in Warrenton September 1908 in which the former used abusive language. Albert Fletcher testified that he heard Thompson say to one of his friends who interfered in the fight:

"You ought to have let me beat the little North Carolinian to death."

Lexington, Va., June 14.—Alumni day was observed at Washington & Lee University today, W. U. Hansel, of Pennsylvania, delivering the commencement address in Lee Memorial Chapel, in which a memorial tablet to the Liberty Hall volunteers was unveiled. Former Attorney General William A. Anderson, also spoke as did William R. Vance, of Washington, formerly professor in the law school.

CONFEREES AGREE ON RAILROAD BILL

Submitted Measure to Congress For Final Passage With Some Changes.

LIKELY BE ADOPTED TODAY

Senator Overman's Amendment Regarding Injunctions Was Accepted—Taft's Provision Was Included—Features of Bill.

Washington, June 14.—The conference on the administration railroad bill was presented to the Senate at 1:30 o'clock today by Chairman Elkins, of the Senate Committee on Inter-State Commerce. It was laid before the House late in the day, under the rules it cannot be acted upon by the House until disposed of by the Senate. It represented one week's work by conferences of the Senate and House in an effort to harmonize the differences in the bills passed by the two branches of Congress, and nearly four months continuous consideration in one or the other of the two branches of Congress.

At the request of several Senators, the report went over until tomorrow when an effort will be made to procure its adoption. The two Democratic conferees did not sign the report and Senator Newlands gave notice today that he would present a minority report.

Generally speaking the finished work of the conferees is declared to be satisfactory to the Senate although in a large part it follows the license of the House bill. A number of amendments secured by insurgent Republican Senators, were retained by the conferees. So far as has been indicated the only objection which may be raised in the Senate to the adoption of the report relates to the report of the conferees adopting the House provision on the subject of long and short hauls.

The last amendment disposed of by the conferees was that relating to the period for which increases in rates might be suspended by the commission. The conferees accepted the Senate provision of ten months. As finally perfected by the conferees the bill carries most of the features of the original administration measure except the exceptions to permit railroads to make polling afreements to use the government to regulate the issuance of stocks and bonds and to permit a railroad to purchase the remaining stock of another line in which it already controls 50 per cent. of the stock. So much opposition developed in both Houses against those provisions that all except the securities section were abandoned outright.

The conferees incorporated a provision authorizing the President to appoint a commission to investigate questions pertaining to the issuance of stocks and bonds by railroads. Expenditures by the commission are limited to $25,000 and it was not given authority to summon witnesses or to compel the production of books and papers. No time was fixed for the making of a report.

The bill as perfected therefore, and as likely to become law, would create a commerce court composed of five judges, the first of whom are to be selected by the President, and thereafter by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. This court will have jurisdiction over all suits brought to enforce or set aside orders of the Inter-State Commerce Commission. In other words it would centralize the existing authority and jurisdiction of circuit courts in matters affecting inter-state commerce.

Other sections would enlarge the power of the commission over railroad regulations and practices and place under the jurisdiction of the commission, telegraph, telephone and cable companies with their wire or wireless and would broaden the scope of the word railroad so as to extend the jurisdiction of the commission over bridges, ferries and terminal facilities. This extension of power is regarded as of the utmost importance.

General provisions are made affecting railroads to compel them to furnish rates upon application and to authorize the commission to institute inquires on its own motion. By provisions adopted by the House and retained by the conferees, the scope of the commission to make regulations was enlarged. It is also provided that a consignor of freight shall have the right to designate by which of the two or more through routes his property shall be transported to destination.

Striking differences between the Senate and House bills were reconciled as follows:

The court will be known as the commerce court as provided by the House, instead of a court of commerce as desired by the Senate.

The method of selecting the judges to form the court is a Senate provision. Another Senate amendment retained permits of appeals to the Supreme Court from interlocutory orders or decrees of the commerce court granting or continuing injunctions to restrain enforcement of orders of the commission. It is provided, however, that the appeals must be taken within 30 days.

It was provided by the administration bill that the commerce court should not issue injunctions suspending orders of the commission except in cases where irreparable damage would ensue. To that provision the conferees added a Senate amendment requiring

THE BATTING AND FIELDING

Unofficial Compilation Shows Many Surprises—Relative Strength of Several Teams in Eastern Carolina League.

Below is given unofficial team batting and fielding averages of teams in the Eastern Carolina League to June 11th inclusive, from which dope more than one lesson can be learned. A close inspection will cause a great many surprises; for instance, who had an idea that Raleigh was leading in club hitting when holding down the cellar berth, and Rocky Mount was leading in gardening. The case of the latter simply goes to prove games cannot be won without hits.

With her heavy hitting aggregation and fair fielding average the Red Birds, apparently, are weak in the pitching line. Wilson players are evidently, as a whole, the best base runners, having scored such a large number of runs on 106 hits, although, of course, the errors of her opponents are to be considered as also aiding in this respect. The Sailors bring up the rear for fielding honors, their average being held down to a considerable extent by the large number of bobbles pulled off by the team before the new men were taken on. However, take a look at the figures, and draw your own conclusions. The figures are to June 11th, inclusive.

PALMER'S NEW RECORD.

Exciting Hill Climbing Auto Event in Pennsylvania.

Wilkes Barre, Pa., June 14.—The fifth national hill climb over Giant's Despair on the Wilkes Barre mountains under the auspices of the Wilkes Barre Automobile Club was held today and fully fifty persons entered. Ralph de Palmer driving a 200 hose power Fiat car made a new record over this course, going the distance of 6,000 feet at a rise of 700 feet, with one sharp elbow and an "S" turn, with the grades from 10 to 22 per cent. in 1:28 2-5 breaking by three seconds the record established by David Bruce Brown, in his 200 horse power Benz last year.

A Warren-Detroit car driven by Tom Berger, the first one up the hill was ditched near the mountain house, about half over the course, the car skidded on a short curve where the road was slightly oily. Berger was thrown out and had a narrow escape from serious injury. Two wheels were smashed and the mechanism badly damaged.

The Hollenback trophy event was won by Fred Belcher in a Knox Giantess, the time being 1:52 3-5, the fastest ever made by the winner of the gold cup in this race.

WRIGHTS LOSE A POINT.

Court of Appeals Vacates Temporary Injunctions.

New York, June 14.—Orville and Wilbur Wright lost a point today in their court fight to protect the patents covering their aeroplane from alleged infringements by Glenn H. Curtiss and Louis Paulhan, the French aviator. By unanimous decision the United States Court of Appeals vacated the temporary injunctions obtained by the Wright company against Paulhan and the Herring-Curtiss Company pending trial of suits which will determine whether there is any infringement in fact.

The decision cites that the only question involved is whether in the defendants aeroplane, the tendency to swerve or spin is counteracted by members of a vertical rudder. Following the issuance of the temporary injunction affidavits were submitted by both sides which present sharp conflict in the evidence. Under the circumstances the court says, the infringement is not so clearly established as to justify a preliminary injunction.

FRAUDS HURTS CREDIT.

Movement of Crop This Fall Seriously Threatened.

New York, June 14.—Acting in the belief that the recent frauds in bills of lading estimated to run into the millions, have so shaken the confidence of credit institutions in the validity of these instruments that the movement of crops this Fall is seriously threatened, steps were taken today by strong financial interests in conference here to demand legislation that will safeguard these securities. The passage of the Stevens bill, pending before the National Senate, which makes railroads responsible for bills of lading issued by their agents is the chief remedy sought.

Lewis F. Pierson, president of the American Bankers' Association, officers of five local banks, representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, the New York Cotton Exchange and foreign and interior bankers, attended the conference.

Mr. Pierson said after the conference that bankers everywhere had determined to curtail loans on bills of lading until the carriers are made responsible. When it is read so that all of our crops are financed by means of bills of lading, he added, the gravity of the situation is apparent.

The same teams line up again today and doubleheaders will be played as soon as possible to make up for games postponed.

JOHNSON WORKING HARD.

Busy Day of Boxing—Has Secured a New Man.

San Francisco, June 14.—To take the place of Monte Cutler, who has left Jack Johnson's camp, the champion has procured the services of Tim Monahan, an amateur heavy weight of the coast. Monahan weighs 200 pounds and is yet young and strong. Johnson expects that he will be an excellent substitute for Cutler.

After the road work Johnson donned the gloves, taking on every one who would exchange punches with him. The bout with Kauffman proved to be the best boxing of the day.

MARRIED IN WHITEVILLE.

Young People From Wilmington Plight Their Troth in Columbus.

(By Long Distance Telephone.)

Whiteville, N. C., June 14.—A romantic marriage was celebrated here this afternoon upon the arrival of the train from Wilmington, the parties to the marriage vow being Miss Pauline Wessell, of Wilmington, and Mr. Volney M. Gilbert, giving his residence as Norfolk, Va. Upon their arrival on the train, they proceeded at once to the Court House where the necessary license was procured after which they repaired to the parsonage of the Methodist Church and were joined in marriage at 5 o'clock, Rev. D. C. Geddie officiating in the presence of a few friends. The young people declined to discuss the romance evidently attached to the marriage and when asked why they were not married in Wilmington, when they said they came up from Wrightsville Beach, they merely asked in reply "Isn't Whiteville just as good a place to get married in?" The couple expected to leave tonight, returning to Wilmington where it is said the groom formerly resided, but is now employed in Norfolk.

YOUNG POWELL IN JAIL.

Son of Man Who Killed Chief of Police Dunn Charged as Blind Tiger.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Scotland Neck, N. C., June 13.—Some days ago Mayor A. C. Livermon issued a warrant to Chief of Police G. H. Johnson against E. E. Powell, Jr., for selling liquor. At the trial there were ten separate charges for which Powell waived examination and he was put under a bond of $350 in each case.

A number of men testified against Powell and the mayor considered the evidence sufficient to bind him over. Failing to give the bond, Powell was committed to the county jail in Halifax, but efforts are being made to give the bond before the clerk of the court so that he may be released from jail.

BOY AERONAUT "MAKES GOOD."

Goes Nine Miles in His Balloon and Then Comes to Grief.

New York, June 14.—Fred Lowens, a youthful aeronaut of Belleville, N. J., gave Manhattan a new thrill today by suddenly appearing in a sausage shape dirigible balloon in the power part of the city. He had flown nine miles from Belleville and crossed the Hudson without mishap, but on reaching the city ball district his troubles began.

Over-zealous volunteers standing on the roof of the court house seized his drag rope causing the craft to veer and strike the building twisting the frame work and putting the propeller out of commission. Thus helpless the wind caught the balloon and bore it erratically over the East river where it landed among a group of trees and trolley wires. Firemen rescued Owens uninjured. Lower New York gazed upward and cheered frantically as Owens cut capers and dodged like a wasp among the sky scrapers. Those who happened to be directly under him were showered with sand as he threw overboard ballast.

CHARGES AGAINST H. L. GODWIN ANSWERED BY R. G. TAYLOR, MEMBER OF CONGRESSIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF HARNET COUNTY WHO KNOWS THE FACTS.

Mr. Editor:—I notice from letters and press clippings that they say Mr. Godwin has no influence in Congress and has been unable to accomplish aything for the relief of his people. Did anyone ever stop to think who are preferring these charges and why? The charges are being made by those who want Mr. Godwin's job and they want the job for the purpose of drawing the $7,500 per year. Now I do not desire to get into any controversy through the press or otherwise, but to my own knowledge I know that the statements being circulated are absolutely false; there is no foundation for them whatever.

I noticed a statement the other day to the effect that he had been unable to pass but two little pension bills; this statement is false because a good many bills have been introduced by Mr. Godwin for the relief of the people of his district that have been enacted into laws and are today upon the statute books. Now when they go around preferring charges why don't you ask them to compare his record with any of his predecessors. Why don't you ask them to state wherein any of his opponents are better qualified to render better services in Congress during the coming four years than Mr. Godwin has rendered for his people during his service in Congress? Consider the four candidates against him and state wherein anyone of them could do more than he has done. Now I am in favor of keeping the records straight; they say he has passed but two bills, let us see about that. Isn't it a well known fact to the people of his district that he passed bills appropriating Three Hundred Thousand ($300,000) Dollars for a Custom House at Wilmington; for an additional appropriation of Ten Thousand ($10,000) Dollars for the public building at Fayetteville; for Five Thousand ($5,000) Dollars to purchase a site for a public building at Lumberton; for hundreds of thousands of dollars for the Lower Cape Fear river, and many bills for surveys looking to the improvement of such rivers as the Shallotte, the Northeast and the Elizabeth river, while other bills are yet pending for the improvement of Lumber and other rivers? Isn't it of common knowledge that he passed a bill through the House adopting for the first time the long agitated Upper Cape Fear project and secured enough money to begin the work? Don't the people know that he rallied to the relief of the flood sufferers and had the War Department to make a thorough investigation of the destitute condition of the people and secured enough money to purchase corn and supplies to be used by the farmers in planting and feeding stock during the cultivation of the next crop?

I am a member of the Congressional Executive Committee of the Sixth District and have watched with much pleasure the remarkable and successful record of Mr. Godwin in Congress and I challenge anyone to show wherein he has not done all that could have been done, he being a member of the minority party in the House. I challenge anyone to show wherein his record has been surpassed by anyone of his predecessors. Now I want the critics of Mr. Godwin to come up and answer this challenge, if they are able to do so, or shut up. I could go on and show thousands of things Mr. Godwin has done for the relief of the people, but space will not admit in a short article like this. Every farmer and laboring man in the sixth district knows that he has championed their cause and if the truth was known Mr. Godwin is being fought strenuously today because his opponents and the friends of his opponents know that he is by far the strongest man in the field and that he has become strong by reason of his faithful service and loyalty to the common people of his district. The charges going the round that he is without influence in Washington are all rot. They have been hatched up for political purposes for the purpose of bolstering up and furthering the cause of the candidates against him and the people should pay no attention to them. If anyone believes them, let him write to any reputable member on the Democratic side in the House of Representatives. Champ Clark, the minority leader, has full knowledge of the faithful services of Mr. Godwin and I invite anyone to write him for the facts. The Democratic members of the North Carolina delegation in Congress will gladly state how Mr. Godwin stands to anyone who will spend a two cent stamp in writing a letter to them. Why just a few days ago the members of the South Carolina delegation heard of these false and ridiculous charges and immediately wrote a letter to Mr. Godwin endorsing his faithful work and wise course in Congress and refuted all these false reports and insinuations. Rev. J. A. Smith, of Wilmington, who is interested in the Fort Fisher Bill, has made many trips to Congress and had occasion to notice the influence of our representative there; ask him how Mr. Godwin stands in Congress. I have visited Congress since he has been there and I know that he has influence and he is loyal to his people and works in their behalf and his efforts have been crowned with remarkable success.

I cannot, without going into a lengthy article, undertake to enumerate anything like the number of projects Mr. Godwin has in charge for the benefit of his people but I am satisfied the influence of his great work in Congress is known and felt throughout the remotest precincts of the sixth district and if he is permitted to stay there for a few more terms he will get them through and this district will take its stand, under his wise administration, where it belongs, at the head of the foremost districts of the country.

The insinuation that Mr. Godwin will be unable to carry Harnett county are false and every one knows why they are made. It is a very easy matter to go down in another section of the district and state that he is weak in his own county, but I know what I am talking about and all others will know it after the primaries are heard.

PYTHIAN GRAND LODGE MEETS

Welcome Address and Response Last Night at Charlotte—Dance and Entertainment at Lakewood Park—Large Attendance.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Charlotte, N. C., June 14.—The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of the Tar Heel State, is bringing to Charlotte Pythians from the mountains to the seacoast, and tonight the city is host of several hundred while many more will come in for the sessions of Wednesday and Thursday, and for the meeting and banquet of the D. O. K.K. which is set for tomorrow.

Every hotel is crowded with the attending Knights and the opening session of the Grand Lodge tonight filled Pythian Hall on South Tryon street to overflowing. The selection of Major J. G. Baird, editor of The Carolina Pythian to make the opening address and of Mr. C. C. McLean, of Greensboro, to make the response proved especially happy, giving the three days sessions a cordial sort of feel-at-home sensation relished by every Pythian here, and making Charlotte Pythians glad that they have the honor this year of entertaining the Grand Lodge, all of whose members are present except Mr. J. C. Mills, of Mt. Airy.

At the conclusion of the formal exercises, over which Grand Chancellor George L. Hackney, of Asheville presided, the Pythians and lady friends and a big crowd from the city made the four-mile trip to Lakewood Park where dancing and a reception made the evening hours pass swiftly. The Grand Lodge will be in session practically all of Wednesday, with the ceremonial session of Suez Temple set for the evening hours.

PROGRESSIVE, PRODUCTIVE.

First and Finest Fruits of the Land Sent by Mr. E. D. Pearsall.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., June 14.—I send you by express this evening, samples first fruits of Pender, peaches (Greensboro), pears (Bar-sickle, a hybrid between Bartlett and Sickel-highly colored and flavored, a pear that has recently been introduced and promises well for eastern North Carolina—a decided improvement on the old June pear that you could smell two miles off but was deficient in bouquet or flavor); plums, abundance Burbank's Jap variety; new sweet potatoes (Jersey yellow), figs, Brown Turkey. The first cotton squares reported and will bloom next week. All of this grown on Historic Swann's Point Farm, immediately on the scene of Cornwallis' retreat April 6th, 1781, and is near the spot where Cornwallis crossed the river and the people of Pender desire the steel bridge to connect the two counties.

There is no doubt of the fact that Pender has the finest, most productive climate and soil in our grand old State. Our shipments were the very first of berries, asparagus, beans, cukes, potatoes and onions. Corn crop is practically laid by and is the best in several years. Mr. W. A. Brown, of Greater Rocky Point, that includes the old "Moorefields" plantation, has broad acres of corn that will yield 50 bushels per acre without a particle of commercial or any other fertilizers; 20 acres of cotton that from present appearances will yield one bale per acre. These lands have been in constant cultivation since 1760 A. D. There is a strata of sulphate of iron and iron ore that is just on top, is disintegrated by the Winter's frost and thus the fertilizer is usu-fruct.

These lands are the home of the peach. There is said to be a special providence for fools and drunken men; there seems to be a special one for the growers of the Greensboro peach. They plant them out on ditch banks like a post and they bear loads or fruit each year. I refer to Dr. R. J. Williams, Mr. R. S. Futch and Mr. W. A. Brown as to proof of my assertion. The plum crop this season is surely enormous. Same as to peach crop; in some instances apples promise large crops. That fruit, however, seems to be on the decadence and is seriously affected by fire-blight 25 years ago before the pot-hunter and his first cousin, the city bird hunter, became such nuisances; the birds destroyed great numbers of insects that were beneficial to the fruit and field products. Now the horticulturists and viti-culturists have to contend with whole armies of insects that were unknown in earlier days, when a glass of good cider could be had at every farm house door.

A movement is on foot to establish a real, genuine agricultural, horse trot, horticultural society for Pender to hold a fair at Burgaw some time in October or November. There won't be any such tommy-rot as baseball, side-shows, with frowsy women, painted cheeks, thimble-ring and gambling devices, but a pure show of pumpkins, peanuts, potatoes, peaches, pears, plums, peanut-fed ham, light bread, soft soap, quilts, counterpanes and other home-made truck and the prettiest of all will be a show of Pender's pretty as a peach girls. You can just make your plans to come, for it's going to be a be. E. D. P.

Wednesday, June 15th, 1910.

There isn't any law to prevent the return of undesirable citizens when they go off and stay awhile.

When a man "refuses to talk", it might mean that he knows how to exercise discretion. Then again it might mean that he is in a position where he can't talk.

It is curious how men like Dolliver, Cummins, Pinchot and other Republicans have just waked up to the rascality and corruption of the Republican party. Why, some of us caught on to it the first time we ever went to the polls.

Because a man does a good deed it surely will not exempt him from obeying the laws. Therefore, no corporation need expect that by reason of doing the right thing sometimes, it will be permitted to do the wrong thing whenever it takes a notion.

One of the worst signs we have observed in the Ballinger mess is that he should oppose as good a man as Prof. J. A. Holmes—a man whose integrity, ability and fitness are unquestionable. Why anyone should fear a good man is indeed strange.

Who would like to be President and have a man like Senator Dolliver to convict you of violating your party word and campaign pledges? The insurgent Senator's three hours speech on Monday makes a defense from the President a thing of utter absurdity.

It is stated that Senator Lorimer now declines to talk. Well, that is his prerogative, which, translated, means that it is up to him. It is better for a man to keep his mouth shut than to take chances on the unlimited possibilities of putting his foot in it.

A Socialist town is being built in Kentucky and it is to have no laws, the authorities' intention being "simply to enforce the Golden Rule." Come to think of it, that will even be a more difficult problem than the enforcement of prohibition. This age furnishes so many hard nuts to crack.

The Washington Herald has a correspondent who tells us that we should not spell it "bucket shop" but "buck-it" shop—because it was established so people with a propensity for gambling in stocks and options could "buck" it. Don't make any difference how you spell it, the way to spell the names of its patrons is s-u-c-k-e-r-s.

A new party with the same old men in it will do the same tricks that the men used to make their old parties do. Good men to run the old parties will be better than a new party with the bars down for all comers—mostly disgruntled politicians, the disappointed refuse from the old parties, and arrant demagogues who are ever ready to cast to windward.

The Honorable Theodore Roosevelt will come into New York on Saturday toting his own skillet. He says he will ask no favors from the custom house officers nor will he receive any favors. At the same time he would be terribly surprised if the inspectors were to examine his luggage just as if he were a common ex-Governor from New Hampshire.

The National Graft Association which is to be organized in Washington wants suggestions as to the best means of preventing men from becoming grafters. One way is to teach a man the self respect that will put him in such a fighting humor that he will hit a malefactor of great wealth when he offers a million dollars for some questionable service. P. S.—We don mean "hit" him for the million.

CROP WASTE.

Judging from the proceedings of the various bank associations in the United States and especially of the Southern bankers' organizations, the financiers are beginning to discuss numerous practical questions besides those intricate problems which concern banking only. Among the discussions which took place at the meeting of the bankers' associations in several Southern States recently was the serious question of crop waste.

Strange as it may seem, the immense waste of crops in the United States has not been intimated by some agriculturist or by some one in an agricultural section, but by a city banker. At any rate a New York banker seems to have done more effective work than any one else in the way of inaugurating a movement that promises some practical effect. The man who is impressing this question upon the country is Vice President Josept T. Talbert, of the National City Bank of New York. Mr. Talbert delivered an address some time ago before the Texas Bankers' Association upon the subject of "Our National Vice."

That National vice, Mr. Talbert claims, is the waste of crops after they are made by the farmers of the United States at great expense. He spoke especially with reference to the waste of the corn crop, declaring that "the amount of this golden treasure which we produce annually is equal to a King's ransom, but we do not husband it as we should, and we have failed to appreciate what a blessing it is." Mr. Talbert remarked that we have not demonstrated to the world the excellence of corn as an article of human food and as so far as we are concerned ourselves we have neglected to make proper use of it. He declared that in wholesomeness and health-giving properties it is equal to wheat.

Mr. Talbert asserted before the Texas bankers that if the corn production of the United States is properly exploited, and the merits of corn as a food product is properly made known, large quantities of this valuable grain could be exported to Europe and the far East. He contended that instead of making that profitable disposition of it, upon a fair estimate, between a third and a quarter of the production of corn in several of the principal surplus corn-producing States was allowed to go to waste last season. He meant to say that the corn is allowed to lie in the fields all Winter unharvested, some times because of unfavorable Autumn weather and in some instances because of absolute neglect. The worst indictment which he made as the cause of a large amount of wastefulness of the corn crop was that of bad roads. This appears to present another strong argument in favor of good roads for the farmers of this country.

After giving the statistics, Mr. Talbert characterized the waste of our corn crop as almost a crime, and he pointedly inquired: "Can you imagine German, French or English farmers not harvesting crops after making them?" It is estimated, he said, that nearly a third of the corn crop is allowed to go to waste and he denounced it as a National disgrace. To be sure that is true.

In the South, we will all agree that if Mr. Talbert's statistics as to corn are true, and the probability is that he is correct, we must agree that we are a very short-sighted lot of people in all parts of the United States. What have we to say, however, about the enormous waste of our cotton crop—not before it is harvested but after we go to the expense of harvesting it? Sometimes after we pick it we allow it to lie in the seed in a damp condition and when we gin and pack it we do it in such a slovenly manner that a cosiderable waste results. We not only fail to put the proper covering on our baled cotton but after the cotton has been baled we allow it to lie without cover, subject to dampness and rain which deteriorates its quality and causes a loss that would stagger us if we knew it.

If from any cause the waste of the South's cotton crop amounts to 50 cents a bale, it means a loss of from $5,000,000 to $7,000,000 a year. There is no doubt that we do loose millions of dollars a year by our careless and negligent handling of our great money crop. If we do no more, we should have it baled with sufficient covering as not to make it the cause of scandal in European countries which take two-thirds of the South's cotton crop. Foreign purchasers and consumers constantly comment upon the great comparison between our packing of cotton and that of cotton from other cotton growing counries, Egypt and India for instance. It is time we began a reform in this matter. We should bale our cotton better, we should have standard bales, and the cotton should be kept out of the weather so its quality will not deteriorate.

A Roosevelt Democrat is a man who can't resist the temptation to fall in with the procession that is led by a tom-tom corps.

The new anti-graft organization wants to do something that will put an end to graft. We have no hesitancy in making known the thing to be done. Make money quit talking.

A STATESMAN'S SPEECH.

That was truly a great speech which Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, delivered in the Senate on Monday. Indeed, it was the deliverance of a statesman. The gentleman from Iowa is one of the leaders of the insurgent Republicans and he has the reputation of being the orator of the Senate. He is a learned and able man and any one who reads his magnificent speech must admit that he is a true American, a man of lofty patriotism, and an incorruptible statesman.

In debate Senator Dolliver is fearless and woe be to the adversary who crosses forensic swords with him. He is a Republican from honest convictions and his soul has rebelled against the prostitution of the party of Abraham Lincoln. He is chagrined to witness the degeneracy of his party, and notwithstanding the fact that President Taft himself and the regular Republicans have denounced the insurgents as traitors to their party, one who looks on dispassionately can but see that Senator Dolliver and his fellow insurgents have taken the only course that will save their party—unless the people of the United States are fatuitously blind to the danger threatening their country from a corrupt Republican party, drunk with power, hopelessly debauched, and owned by special interests, body and soul.

If Senator Dolliver's speech had been aimed at any political power, Republican or Democratic, it would have been a great speech. Indeed it was notable and it will go down into history. It was primarily a defense of the insurgents, but it was eminently and profoundly more than that. The Senator's speech will prove to be a profound and solemn warning to the American people. It is prophetic of the impending doom of a government by the people, unless just such men as Dolliver can get control of the Republican party, or unless the Democratic party comes into power and stays the madness of political debauchery as it is exemplified in latter day Republicanism.

Senator Dolliver spoke for three hours and his speech was a powerful assault upon the integrity of the Republican party. Neither did he spare the invertebrate Taft who surrendered at the first call to the destroying element of his party. The satire of the Iowan was keen, incisive and severe. He hurled defiance at the defamers and traducers of the insurgents, and it was a telling blow when he declared that organized defamation proceeded from the President himself and from "a so-called campaign committee presided over by a multi-millionaire promoter of street car franchises with a treasury filled with rotten money!"

Senator Dolliver's great speech recalls the platform pledges of the Republican party in 1908, now ignored and violated without remorse. It recalls one of the strangest things in political history—the absolute and flagrant failure of a President to redeem his own words and pledges made to a confiding country in the 1908 campaign. Dolliver's speech serves to show that Taft "failed to grapple with the corrupt influences that stood ready to recapture the strongholds of this government, and that he might succeed where strong men had failed in protecting this market place (the Senate) against conspiracies of greed and avarice which have attempted to enslave it!"

When a Republican tells what his party has come to, it is quite time that the people should wake up and save their country. It indeed appears strange that an able Republican like Senator Dolliver should have to stand on his feet for three hours and defend himself and fellow insurgents from the charge of treason—even by Taft himself—because of "the offense of taking the President's campaign speeches seriously, and for the still higher crime of regarding the platform of the Republican party as a binding moral obligation."

Vice President Sherman says "Roosevelt will endorse the tariff law and will endorse Taft in every particular." Well, suppose he does. That is no reason why any other man should turn fool and go wrong.

Hundreds of distinguished men, Republicans and Democrats, will be in New York to greet Col. Roosevelt upon his return home. Senator Tillman will please be excused. He has the rheumatism.

Of course, the Republican party will defend the tariff. It needs defense and plenty of it.

By the way, isn't the chief of the muckrakers coming home next Saturday?

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Wilson Times says: "Now that the bond question is out of the way, there is nothing left to talk about except baseball." Do you suppose you will be able thus easily to sidetrack Wake and New Hanover affairs?—Greenville News.

Maj. W. H. Bernard, in The Fayetteville Observer, endeavors to set North Carolinians straight in the matter of the pronunciation of automobile. The word should be pronounced, says Maj. Bernard, as if spelled "auto-mow-bill." That is all right for the beginner but we fear the Major's advice comes too late for the confirmed transgressors who have been making the last syllable "beal" instead of "bill."—Salisbury Post.

We have just received a copy of The Fool Killer, published and edited by J. S. Pearson, of Moravian Falls. At first, we were just a bit juberous about letting it come into the office, but finally overcoming our antipathy we brought it in and read it, and really believe now that it has no intention of making good its name. With the understanding that it is to make an exception of The Journal shop, we welcome it to our exchange table.—Apex Journal.

It is 12 miles across from Wilmington to Wrightsville. South of this line, that strip of New Hanover county is shaped like a wedge, coming to a point at Fort Fisher. This wedge-shaped section between ocean and river is almost uninhabited; but the indications are that in the course of a few years it will be converted into the most productive strip of soil in the State. Since last March an expert from the United States Geological Survey has been going over it mapping out plans for its drainage, whereby it can be converted into farming lands. The expectations are that with its reclamation, it will produce rice, corn and cotton, perhaps of sea island quality. In this proposed development there are great possibilities for that section of New Hanover.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Lutheran people and Lutheran colleges, like all others, are talking in larger figures than ever before. Muhlenburg College is raising $100,000 for additional endowment; Thiel College is raising an additional $100,000 for the same purpose; Augustana College has just completed her $250,000 for endowment and is erecting a $125,000 memorial library. The Krauth memorial library of the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia is raising $125,000 for complete endowment and equipment. This is already the finest theological library of any denomination in the United States. Roanoke College is planning to build at once three fine up-to-date buildings at a cost of some $200,000. Newberry College is raising $50,000 more for endowment, and this will be augmented then by $25,000. The plant there will be worth $250,000. The United Synod Theological Seminary will cost $100,000.—Salisbury Post.

The editors were happy in their selection of a president of the North Carolina Press Association at the meeting at Wrightsville this week. It was one of the best meetings in the history of the body, and the elevation of Mr. Shipman at this meeting was therefore all the more complimentary. Mr. Shipman became an editor when he was a boy, first publishing a paper at French Broad, in Transylvania county. Later desiring a larger town, where he could print a larger paper he moved the French Broad Hustler to the live and growing town of Hendersonville, where he has made it the most powerful force in the development of that splendid town. In politics he is a Democrat of "the most strictest sect" and was honored by being made State Commissioner of Labor, which position he now holds. He is a wideawake and capable editor and will make a progressive president.—News and Observer.

A graftless town is being built on the Kentucky side of the Ohio river directly opposite Evansville. The town will have no officials, hence, it is agreed, there will be no graft. J. A. Brown, of New York, is the builder, and his backers are Mrs. Kate Hawley, a philanthropist, of New York, and James Crawford, a capitalist, of Terre Haute, Ind. The town has been laid out and work has started on a large factory building and the electric plant. The new town will be run on Socialistic lines, although Brown states he is not a Socialist. He says Mrs. Hawley and Crawford want him to build the ideal city of the world. The people will rule themselves. There will be a public meeting once a week in the coliseum in the town, where all trials will take place. People accused of any crime will be brought before the people as a tribunal and they will vote on the guilt or innocence of the accused. All home-owners will have an interest in the public utilities of the town and share in the profits. Under the regulations in the new town, if a clerk in the community store "sasses" a customer, he can be brought before the town meeting and have his job taken away from him. Brown says he proposes to have a town where every resident will obey the Golden Rule.—Indianapolis News.

The great fault in government is not to trust the people. We do not act as if we realized that the government is made by them and is theirs and that they can take care of it. We have always most unaccountably looked to Wall Street to float our bonds. Our late experience shows they can be taken right here in North Carolina. Indeed all our State bonds ought to be held in our own State, for then the interest being retained here would be no drain on us. It was a grave mistake to issue no bonds less than $500 and $1,000, as if only the rich would take them. When Germany laid a war indemnity upon France of 1,000 millions of dollars it was at once raised, mostly by the French peasantry and small farmers and shopkeepers. This miracle was accomplished by issuing bonds as low as $10. France has not quite 20 times our population and this feat is equivalent to North Carolina taking 50 millions State bonds. Our people are richer than the French peasantry. Certainly the people of this State could have taken our $3,500,000 bonds, without looking to New York, or even to our bankers, if our statute had only authorized $50 and $100 bonds. The United States government authorizes $20, $40 and $60 bonds. Let us hereafter authorize the issue of $50 and even $25 bonds and look to our own people to take them. Let us resolve that we need not be dependent upon Wall Street. North Carolina can always rely upon her own people. Let us trust them.—Raleigh News and Observer.

"THE DEVANE LETTER."

An Explanation in Regard to Recent Congressional Publication.

The Star has recently been so beseiged with numerous inquiries as to the "why and wherefores" of a recent paid advertisement appearing in its columns over the name of J. D. DeVane, making reflections upon Hon. O. L. Clark, of Clarkton, in his aspirations for Congressional honors, that although the publication was clearly marked as an advertisement in the first instance, it feels that both to relieve the paper of a burdensome correspondence and in justice to Mr. Clark, it should make the following explanation.

The communication was originally sent to the paper by Mr. DeVane from East Arcadia, but was so clearly beyond the proprieties, so manifestly vicious in its attack upon a fellow county-man, that it was returned to the writer with the information that we were publishing no matter in advocacy of the Congressional candidates except as advertisements, not for the revenue that such a policy produced, but in order that the paper's columns might not be burdened with such political matters to the exclusion of everything else during campaign years. Thinking this would be the last of the communication, the Star was surprised a few days later to receive the original as written by Mr. DeVane to which was attached a typewritten copy from the original with a letter from Hon. H. L. Godwin, explaining that his stenographer had made a copy of the communication and ordering the insertion of the same as an advertisement, for which check was later received upon receipt of bill to Mr. Godwin. The Star does not consider it the province of a Democratic newspaper to take up the fight of any candidate before he becomes the nominee of the party, other than to stand loyally and patriotically by the "favorite son" from the home county and this explanation is made in the interest of fairplay and in response to numerous inquiries and reports that the paper was being put in the false position of circulating a "campaign lie" as to the authorship and responsibility for the publication.

SHE WEIGHED JUST NINETY

Pounds, Did Mrs. Bashore, But Cardui, the Woman's Tonic, Soon Added 25 to Her Weight.

N. Manchester, Ind.—"I suffered misery of every description," writes Mrs. Eva Bashore, of this place. "Two doctors attended me, and advised an operation. I lost weight, until I only weighed ninety pounds. I dreaded an operation and, instead, began to take Cardui. In a short time I had gained 25 pounds, and I felt as well as I ever had.

Cardui, I am sure, saved my life."

Many of the pains from which you suffer, could be prevented or relieved by taking Cardui, the woman's tonic.

This statement is based on what Cardui has done for others. For over 50 years Cardui has been used by those who needed its beneficial results, and is today in use in thousands of homes, where it relieves pain, and brings back strength and ambition.

BIG GRANITE CONTRACT LET

North Carolina Granite Corporation Lowest Bidder for Furnishing Government 12,000 Tons—Bids Opened at Noon.

Pursuant to advertisement bids were opened in the United States Engineer's office, in this city, yesterday at noon for furnishing the government 12,000 tons of granite to be used in continuing the work of constructing a dam, which will close up the inlet, near the mouth of the Cape Fear river. There were a number of bidders and the prices varied considerably. The contract was awarded by Capt. Earle I. Brown, United States Engineer, in charge o fthis district, to the North Carolina granite Corporation at Mount Airy, N. C., which made the lowest bid.

The following are the bids submitted: Balfour-Pink Granite Co., Salisbury, N. C., $1.40 per ton, small, $1.40 per ton, large; North Carolina Granite Corporation, Mount Airy, $1.40, small, $1.35, large; Columbia Granite & Dredging Co., Washington, D. C., $2.24 for both large and small; The Breakwater Co., Philadelphia, $1.97 for both; John Monk, Norfolk, Va., $2.77 1-2 for small.

The contract totals something over $16,000 and it is understood that the granite is to be delivered at once, and that it will be put in place as rapidly as it arrives.

THE FURNACE FUND.

Rev. J. S. Crowley Tells What it Means—An Appeal.

Mr. Editor:—The question has been asked by several persons who say they are very much interested in the little Presbyterian church on South Front street, what the Furnace Fund means. If you will permit me, sir, I will occupy as little of your valuable space as I can, to explain. In the first place, Immanuel Church, while it is Presbyterian, is not selfish, and has furnished many good men and women to the city of Wilmington, who are now members of other churches, and who feel that they owe much to her for their early training, both in the Kindergarten and in the Sunday School. In the second place, the Kindergarten department is conducted for nine months of the year, for children from four to six years of age, by two of the best and most refined Christian women in the city of Wilmington. I should be glad to give their names, but they do not like to have their names appear in public print, especially when there is any praise attached to them. This Kindergarten work has been going on for years, and it has cost those who have taken advantage of it nothing, except as the parents of these little children feel like making some small contribution. It is undenominational, and children of all denominations attend and are as welcome as are the children of Presbyterians. In the third place, there is a Marion Sprunt Playground, the only one in the city, where the children can spend a few hours pleasantly, with the proper out-door exercise, with a paid, and very capable person to look after their welfare. In the fourth place, the furnace now in use, to heat the church in cold weather, is completely worn out, and needs to be replaced by a new one. The Ladies' Aid Society of the church is endeavoring to raise the amount necessary to purchase the much needed furnace. The amount necessary will be about $300, as there will have to be some excavating done. Friends who wish to help us may do so by making a contribution to Col. Walker Taylor, or to Rev. J. S. Crowley, the pastor; or purchase tickets and have a delightful outing on the excursion Friday, June 17th, to Carolina Beach. Mr. Editor, I thank you for this privilege, and I thank our kind and interested friends who have helped us in the past, and who, I am sure, will remember Immanuel Presbyterian church now.

Cordially yours,
J. S. CROWLEY.

IMPROVEMENTS AT MURCHISON.

Handsome New Tile Floor Laid in Lobby of Progressive Bank.

Always mindful of its patrons not only in providing every facility and convenience for doing business, the Murchison National Bank, of this city, is also a pioneer in the beauty and elegance of its quarters, its handsome banking house at Front and Chesnut streets, being second to none in the State. Its beauty and the pleasure of its appearance to visitors has just been enhanced by the completion this week of a very handsome tiled flooring in the lobby or main entrance of the building, the work having been done by the McClamroch Mantel & Tile Co., of Greensboro, N. C.

The tile is of green, rectangular in shape, and presents a decidedly attractive appearance. It is artistically laid and the entrance is as handsome as there is in the State. The interior of the Murchison Bank is provided with every modern convenience, well lighted, well ventilated and in these respects is a model in every way. The new floor has been much admired by the hundreds of those who have business with one or another of the wickets of this big banking institution each day.

THE COTTAGERS AT THE BEACH

Complete Directory Showing Those Who Have Gone Down For Summer or Who Will in Few Days. Few Vacant Houses.

With few exceptions every cottage on Wrightsville Beach has been taken for the Summer—another healthy indication that the present season will be the best in the history of the popular resort. Through the courtesy of Mr. H. E. Bonitz, principal owner of the Beach Water Works Company, The Star obtained yesterday morning a complete list of tnose who have already gone down to the beach for the Summer or who expect to move down within the next few days, besides the occupants of the other buildings on the beach. The list shows that tnere are only five cottages that have not yet been taken, and real estate men stated yesterday afternoon that these would be rented within a few days. They felt certain of this, so great has been the demand this year for beach cottages.

FURTHER HEARING IN LIBEL.

A Large Number of Witnesses Were Examined Yesterday.

The hearing before Special Master E. S. Martin in the matter of the libel brought by Capt. John W. Harper against the steamer Jarlesburg, begun Monday morning, consumed all of yesterday and will not be concluded until some time today. Captain Hawkins, engineer on the steamer Wilmington, and Mr. William Gilchrist, were examined yesterday morning for the libellant. The latter testified as to the value of different classes of fertilizer at the time of the Seaboard fire a few months ago, when the steamer Jarlesburg escaped total destruction only through the efforts of the harbor craft. The libellant then rested his case, and the following were examined for the claimant: Messrs. Swift Boatwright, Henry Peschau, John M Cazaux and Harry R. Bates, the latter superintendent of the Swift Fertilizer Works, His testimony was decidedly interesting, telling of the chemical effect produced on the different fertilizers by high temperature. The claimant will examine additional witnesses this morning. It is probable that the hearing will be concluded today.

DURHAM EXCURSIONISTS.

Crowd From "Bull City" Spent Day Here and at Seaside Yesterday.

An excursion from Durham conducted by the Second Baptist Sunday School brought a large crowd from the "Bull" City yesterday, arriving in the afternoon at 12:30 and leaving on the return trip at 6:35 last evening.

The train consisted of six coaches and there were some 350 in the party. The majority of the excursionists went immediately to Wrightsville after leaving the train, returning to the city later in the afternoon, spending some six hours at each place. Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather all those who came expressed themselves as being delighted with the outing.

The train was over the Durham & Southern to Dunn and from there to Fayetteville and on to Wilmington over the Coast Line. The run to Wilmington was made in good time and those who were in charge were pleased with the success of the trip.

Merritt; Junior Warden, C. H. Holsenback; Treasurer, J. HaughtonJ ames; Secretary, A. S. Holden. The newly elected officers will be installed June 24th, St. John's Day. It has not yet been decided whether or not there will be a joint installation this year of the officers of the local Masonic lodges.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

New Hanover County Will be Organized at Mass Meeting to be Held in July—Conference of Leaders Last Night.

With a view of outlining plans for the organization of a New Hanover County Sunday School Association, to be composed of representatives of all denominations, a number of local Sunday School workers held a conference last night with Mr. J. Van Carter, the energetic and capable general secretary of the North Carolina Sunday School Association. The meeting was held in the rooms of the Y. M. C. A

Mr. Carter explained in detail the workings of the State organization, its aims and purposes and something of its achievements. The main object of the association is to encourage thorough organization in Sunday School work. Through the instrumentality of the association the work in North Carolina is rapidly broadening out and increasing. A few years ago Sunday Schools were attended mostly by women and children, while now one may find the men folk well represented in every Sunday School, and they are taking a deep interest in the study of the Word. This change was brought about through organization of the forces.

Mr. F. L. Williams was elected temporary chairman and Mr. Joseph W. Little temporary secretary. It was decided to hold a mass meeting Thursday, July 7th, at which a permanent organization will be effected. The arrangements for the meeting will be made by the programme committee, composed of Mr. W. M. Cumming, chairman; Rev. C. F. Whitlock, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist Church; Mr. M. F. Allen, Prof. Washington Catlett, and Rev. C. H. Sweet, pastor of the Fourth and Church streets Christian Advent Church. The association will be interdenominational in character and it is believed that it will begin with a large membership, Similar organizations have done great good in other parts of North Carolina and the leaders have reason to expect as much or more in New Hanover.

Mr. Carter will leave today for Burgaw, where he will attend the meeting of the Sunday School convention of the Wilmington Baptist Association. After the adjournment of the convention Mr. Carter will probably hold a conference with Sunday School leaders of different denominations with a view of forming a Pender county association.

PARK ARRANGEMENTS.

Better Facilities for Handling Crowds. Service to be Improved.

With the return of the teams of the Eastern Carolina League for the weekend games at Wilmington, it is gratifying to know that General Manager A. B. Skelding, of the Tidewater Power Co., has taken every precaution to prevent a recurrence of the trouble experienced with the crowd last Saturday, both in handling them to the city and through the narrow wickets at the park. Mr. Skelding has asked that a policeman be detailed at each of the gates to prevent all crowding and jamming of thoughtless persons as they pass through. It is believed that with the proper tact and discretion in handling the crowds in this way that there will be no further trouble and that patrons would much rather deposit tickets there than have the inconvenience of a slow car to town in order that tickets may be collected by conductors. Mr. Skelding has also arranged to place on the ball park line a number of the smaller city cars to supplement the regular trailers and he believes in this way with a rapid transit to the city there will be no further trouble.

BOYS' BRIGADE WORK.

Plans Being Made for Bowling Contest to Begin Tonight.

Plans have been making for several days for a bowling tournament at the Boys' Brigade armory, among members of the organization, which is scheduled to begin tonight. Interest is increasing in all of the departments of the organization and the attendance for 40 days preceding June 1st was particularly gratifying, being considerably over 2,500. The boys have begun already making arrangements for the annual encampment at Southport from July 15th to 23rd, inclusive. An interesting programme of athletic and aquatic events will be a feature of the encampment. Prizes will be awarded to the winners in each contest. The condition of the gymnasium is being investigated by the gymnasium committee with a view of making any repairs necessary and adding to equipment. The work of the gymnasium is thoroughly organized and much interest is being shown by the members.

THERE WHEN HE ARRIVED.

A Friend of the Star From Way Back —Kind Words From Him.

Enclosing remittance recently for another year's subscription to the Daily Star, Mr. J. M. Smith, of Elkton, an old-time friend of the Star writes:

"The writer is now 37 years old and the Star was in our home when I arrived and has been a continuous visitor ever since and is bigger, better and brighter than ever—even outshines Halley's comet. Crops are a little small for the season but are looking fine and growing nicely. Everybody in this section wants to see Hon. O. L. Clark go to Congress from this district. No better material in the Union. He is an able, high-toned Christian gentleman and men of that type will give us a pure government, free from graft and corruption."

Mohawk Carries the Mail.

The launch Mohawk, Capt. Hall, has been engaged temporarily to carry the mail and make one round trip to Southport each day. The boat leaves in the morning about 9 o'clock and returns with mail in the afternoon in time to catch the out-going trains. Capt. Hall is in charge of the boat and has been making good time between the two points.

STATE BANKERS' CONVENTION

Official Programme for Meeting at Wrightsville Beach Announced Yesterday Morning—Governor Kitchin to Speak.

One of the features of the 14th annual convention of the North Carolina Bankers' Association, which will be held at Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, next week, the official programme for which was announced in this city yesterday morning, will be an address by Governor W. W. Kitchin, whose many Wilmington friends will be glad to learn that he is to sojourn at the resort for a few days. Governor Kitchin's name does not appear on the programme, however, as it is not yet definitely known just what day he will arrive here, nor is it known what his subject will be.

According to information received by Mr. Chas. N. Evans, president of the Southern National Bank, and also president of the Atlantic Trust & Banking Company, and member of the programme committee of the association, the approaching convention will be the largest attended in many years, and will also be among the most important. The association will be in session at the Seashore Hotel Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week and the visiting financiers will begin to arrive on Tuesday. Many of the bankers expect to combine business and pleasure and will therefore be accompanied by their wives and other members of their families. The local bankers have made elaborate preparations for the convention and the visitors will be royally entertained during their sojourn at the beach.

The first session of the convention will be held Wednesday evening, beginning at 9 o'clock, in the assembly hall of The Seashore. After the convention has been formally called to order by the president, Mr. J. O. Ellington, vice president and cashier of the Fourth National Bank, Fayetteville, prayer will be offered by Rev. William E. Cox, rector of St. John's Episcopal church. The address of welcome in behalf of the banks and people generally of Wilmington will be delivered by Mr. J. A. Taylor, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and the response will be made by Gen. Julian S. Carr, president of the First National Bank, Durham, one of the best known and most prominent men in North Carolina. This will be followed by the president's annual address, report of the secretary and treasurer, Mr. W. A. Hunt, cashier of the Citizens' Bank, Henderson, and announcements, after which adjournment will be taken. The meeting will be followed by a reception at the hotel complimentary to the bankers and guests.

The convention will meet Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock and after the roll call and reading of the minutes, Mr. W. C. Wilkinson, cashier of the Merchants and Farmers' National Bank, Charlotte, will make his report as a delegate to the annual convention of the American Bankers' Association. Reports will then be received from the following standing committees: Bills of lading, legislation and group system. This will be followed by an address by Mr. Geo. E. Allen, educational director of the American Institute of Banking, New York City, whose subject will be "Knowledge and Wisdom." Mr. Allen is the only out-of-the-State man down on the programme for an address. Hon. Alf A. Thompson, vice president of the Commercial National Bank, Raleigh, will next address the convention on "Cordial Relations Between Bankers' Investments That Will Give Good Returns." After the appointment of committees on resolutions, nominations and auditing, adjournment will be taken and the bankers and members of their families will board special suburban cars in front of the hotel and come to Wilmington whence they will embark at 1:30 P M. on the steamer Wilmington for a trip on the Cape Fear river. Dinner will be served aboard the boat by the Wilmington Clearing House Association, assisted by some ladies. The trip will be both up and down the river, returning to the city in time to take cars back to the Seashore Hotel for supper. In the evening the visitors will be entertained by the Tidewater Power Company at an attractive souvenir dance at Lumina.

The closing session will be held Friday, convening at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. Addresses will be made as follows: "Bank Taxation," Mr. John F. Bruton, president of the First National Bank, Wilson; "Torrens System of Land Registration," Mr. Henry E. Litchford, cashier Citizens' National Bank, Raleigh; "Capital of Banks," Mr. L. W. Norman, cashier Hertford Banking Co., Hertford. REV. E. R. WELCH RETURNS.

Popular Minister Back in City After Two Weeks' Absence.

Rev. E. R. Welch, the able and exceedingly popular pastor of Trinity Methodist church, returned to the city yesterday, after an absence of two weeks, and will conduct the prayer meeting tonight and fill his pulpit on Sunday as usual. Mr. Welch was called to Parkton two weeks ago on account of the critical illness of his father, who passed away a few days later and was buried Sunday a week ago at McColl, S. C. Mr. Welch had been in feeble health for some time and while his death did not come altogether unexpectedly it was nevertheless a great shock to his loved ones and friends. The bereaved have the sympathy of a great many friends and to Rev. Mr. Welch is extended the heart-felt sympathy of his many friends in Wilmington.

Mr. Welch later went to Durham, where he attended the annual commencement exercises of Trinity College, and from there went to Holly Springs, his former pastoral charge, where on Sunday morning he preached a strong sermon to the members of the local Council, Jr., O. U. A. M. He returned to Durham and came down on the excursion yesterday.

Mr. Welch reported that during his absence and on a night when his wife was also away from home, members of his congregation invaded the parsonage for the third time this year and left a supply of good things for the larder. Three poundings and the year not yet gone. This is an unusual record, and Mr. Welch and family deeply appreciate the thoughtfulness and liberality of members of the church. It is doubtless that if a pastor was ever more generously beloved by his congregation and it is needless to say that Mr. Welch is very much attached to those who compose his church membership. In the short time he has been pastor of Trinity church the enrollment and attendance upon the Sunday School has greatly increased with a corresponding increase in attendance upon the church services. He is doing a good work there, due, of course, to the bond of sympathy and the unusual measure of understanding between pastor and flock.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Negro Sentenced to 12 Months on the County Roads for Larceny.

In the Recorder's court yesterday morning Bill Foster, colored, was given a hearing on the charge of larceny in two cases, pleaded guilty and sentenced to six months on the county roads in each case. It was charged that Foster stole from a boat a pistol belonging to Mr. J. L. Pinner and some brass from the Hammer Lumber Company some weeks ago. The preliminary hearing took place before Justice Harriss some days ago, but was not called in the Recorder's court until yesterday on account of the unavoidable absence from the city of some of the witnesses. A case against Will Canady, colored, charged with larceny, was continued until Saturday. When a case against W. S. Mintz, charged with selling whiskey to J. C. Bowen, was called, County Attorney Marsden Bellamy stated that he would take a nol pros with leave. Mr. Bellamy was probably of the opinion that the evidence would be no stronger than that adduced in the case heard Monday.

AN APPEAL.

Worthy Farmer Near Wilmington Who Has Lost His All—Help.

Editor Star:—Mr. Perry Murry is a hard working farmer living on a rented farm, six miles from Wilmington. His physical strength was greatly impaired a few years ago by a severe attack of appendicitis. Ill health, bad prices for truck and other misfortunes have gotten him behind with his expenses. His only hope of meeting his obligations and supporting his family was in making a good crop this year whch he was working very hard to do. His only piece of property of any value was a good mule which by no fault or neglect of his he lost a few days ago, leaving him with no means of continuing the cultivation of his crop and getting it to market. He is entirely without money and already in debt for supplies. I feel that those of us who have been less unfortunate will be rendering commendable service to a worthy man which the Giver of all good things will not fail to recognize and reward by refurnishing him with a mule or horse at once to enable him to save his crop.

I will be one of one hundred to get him a horse or mule. All who will join me will please write name and amount to me or phone 1707 and donations will be sent for and duly acknowledged.

Good, honest, proprietary medicines like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound succeed, and the homes of the masses are blessed by them, while those which are worthless or harmful soon drop out. Thirty years of success in curing female ills is the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This Free Remedy Helps Sickly Babies

Babies and children suffer mostly from the stomach. There is something wrong with the milk or with the eggs or with the minor articles of food, for it doesn't take much to disturb a child's stomach. One thing the mother can always be sure of and that is that no harm can come from giving a small dose of a mild laxative, for it is sure to be better off for it. You know your own feeling of lightness and ease when that function has been performed, so how much more important is it to the child?

Watch carefully that your child does not become constipated, for if it does not have at least one or two movements of the bowels each day it is constipated. From constipation comes headache, a feeling of oppression, bad breath, nausea, sour stomach, etc. In these troubles you can obtain nothing better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Give it in the small doses prescribed for children and watch the sickly child become healthy and well, full of appetite and energy.

Mothers all over this country have been using this remedy for a quarter of a century and many heads of families like Mr. C. L. Lynch of Billingsley, Ala., and Mrs. Amanda Black of Laura, O., would not keep house without it. They have long ago discarded tablets, pills, salts and such things for the milder, more gentle and more effective Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which every member of the family, from the youngest to the oldest, can use with safety. It is in the homes of more families today than any other laxative, but if you have never used it Dr. Caldwell urges you to send him your name and address and he will send you a sample bottle free of charge. If its use convinces you that it is the remedy you have been looking for then buy it in the regular way of your druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, just as so many others are doing.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R.525 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

BIG CATCH OF TROUT OFF SEASHORE HOTEL YESTERDAY

Fishing is becoming more and more a popular pastime at Wrightsville Beach, this being due perhaps to the increase in the equipment of fishing craft and the courteous attention that is shown at all times by those in charge of the boats. The fishing off the Seashore Hotel has been especially good this season and almost every day a large party goes out for deep sea fishing, and all have splendid luck with the finny tribe. The following composed the party that went out yesterday: Mr. W. C. Carrington, Spartanburg, S. C.; Mr. S. T. Reid, Spartanburg, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Nannelly, and Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Malley, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Kennedy, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. E. E. Murphy, Mr. E. C. Fleming, Augusta, Ga.; Mrs. George Forrester, Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. John F. Bantelle, Chicago, Ill. and Mr. Bernard Hally, of Rome, Ga. They went out in Capt. Well's handsome boat "Vergea May" and in a short time caught 200 fine trout—one of the best catches so far reported this season. Mr. Carrington, who is never so happy as when he is drawing out from the briny deep members of the finny tribe, caught 14 of the number with his own hook. Captain Wells has parties scheduled for every day this week.

PEE DEE LEAGUE.

Laurinburg Takes Another and Wadesboro and Rockingham Tie.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Laurinburg, N. C., June 14.—Regardless of the rains the Pee Dee League continues to play ball. Today's games put Laurinburg in the lead. The home team defeated Jonesboro-Sanford by a score of 10 to 4, and the game between Rockingham and Wadesboro, the other members of the League, was called in the ninth with a score of 2 to 2. Even though the ground was slick the game on the local diamond was not without some brilliant features. The Laurinburg team bettered its former batting record and batted Taylor, for the visitors, out in the first. In the midst of the first, after five men had crossed the plate, Langley was placed upon the mound. The fiendish slugging was only slightly checked. The features for Laurinburg other than batting was the phenomenal work of Bulwinkle in left on a slick field. The chief feature for the visitors was a home run by Mundell with a man on second. Score:

Jones-San. .....002 000 020—4 5 5
Laurinburg .....501 220 00x—10 11 2

Batteries—Taylor, Langley and Harris; Stafford and Seifert; umpires, Jones and Makepeace.

At the Bijou Theatre.

A feature of the performances at the Bijou theatre this week is the illustrated songs of Mr. Harold Pate, a well known local soloist. He has been heard with great pleasure by all the patrons of the retreat. The feature of today's bill will be "When the Cat's Away." It is an Atlantic City picture which statement is enough to draw crowds.

LAURINBURG DOINGS

Telephone Improvements—Much Building—Rains Injure Crops.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Laurinburg, N. C., June 14.—At a recent meeting of the Town commissioners an order was passed requiring the Southern Bell Telephone Company to remove its poles from Main street and either run its wires underground or on poles on the side streets and alleys. The company filed a great kick against the order and finally persuaded the Commissioners to allow it to take away the old poles and replace new ones and run all wires on Main street in a cable. The Company has already begun work under the new order and will have its work completed within a few weeks.

Considerable building is being done in Laurinburg, of residences and business houses. There are three new buildings under construction on Main street, between the Morgan Hotel and the Court House. Mrs. W. L. Fields is erecting a store building and another building in which there will be several offices and will be for the use of the Exchange Publishing Co. Mr. J. C. Morgan will soon have completed an elegant building, opposite the First National Bank and will open business there himself. A large number of residences are under construction and town lots are selling at a large premium.

A series of revivals meetings began in the Methodist church here last night with Rev. Mr. Davis, of Rockingham, assisting the pastor, Rev. Mr. Wilson. In spite of the heavy rains the meetings are being largely attended.

Many farmers are in town today inquiring for the address of the weather man. The rain fall has been exceedingly heavy and is beginning to damage the crops. The fields are washing in an alarming manner in tae northern part of the county. The grass in some sections is getting such headway that it will be beyond control if the rains continue much longer.

John Wilkes, a well-dressed, clever-looking young white man, from near Raeford, was tried before the Recorder this morning for larceny of a suit case from Epstein & Bergman on Satday. His only defense was that he was drunk and knew nothing of the deed. He was committed to jail in default of bond of $50 for his appearance at the November term of court.

VIRGINIA ELECTIONS

Municipal Elections in Several Cities of That State Yesterday.

Richmond, Va., June 14.—Elections for aldermen and councilmen were held in all the towns and cities of Virginia today and in some cases, where vacancies exist, mayors were chosen. The results show that for the most part it was a case again of the Dutch taking Holland.

As a rule there was little or no opposition to the Democratic nominees. Here and there independents appeared, but these were in almost every case snowed under. There was little interest in the elections, save in a few instances, and a general rain over the state helped to make the vote everywhere one of the lightest on record.

In Richmond there was no opposition to the regular Democratic nominees except in the newly annexed Washington ward, which was formerly Manchester City. Here there were a few independent candidates, but these were defeated by a vote of three to one.

In Norfolk the administration forces lined up for Controller T. S. Purdie and this candidate had a walk over as against two independents.

In Petersburg, there was no opposition to the Democratic ticket in any ward, and in Lynchburg the situation was the same.

In Roanoke the Democratic ticket was unopposed in two wards, Mellerose ward, however, one Republican was elected to the board of aldermen and one Republican to the council.

Staunton was an exception to the rule of indifference and light vote. Here two independents defeated Democratic nominees for the board of aldermen. There was also a hot contest in Buena Vista, but the status quo politically seems to have been maintained. In Bedford City there was a tie vote for mayor.

In Radford half of the total number of councilmen were chosen, and three independents won out in West ward.

Salem elected J. S. Persinger mayor over McClung the incumbent, and re-elected its old council.

Washington, June 14.—The Interstate Commerce Commission has been making preparation for investigating the proposed increase in freight rates by various railroads originally submitted and later held up until the Interstate Commerce Commission could pass on the proposed new railroad law. It has appointed an attorney to take up the matter and prepare the cases independently on behalf of the commission. Hearings before examiners will first take place and later before the full commission. Assurances have been given that there will be no delay whatever in reaching a determination far to the interior of both the roads and the shippers.

COTTON STEADY AND ACTIVE

Market More or Less Irregular But Prices Showed Gain of From Six to Eight Points—Aggressive Selling Held in Check.

New York, June 14.—The cotton market was more or less irregular today but generally speaking showed a steady tone and in the late trading became more active with last prices showing a net gain of from 6 to 10 points. The market opened 4 to 5 points higher on the old crop and 1 to 3 points higher on new crop positions in response to steady cables and a renewal of late covering movement yesterday.

The initial bull seemed to bring out a little long cotton and during the early trading the old crop sold off to a net loss of 1 to 4 points. But aggressive selling was held in check by continued complaints based upon reports of too much rain in the Eastern belt and a renewal of bull support sent prices back to about the closing figures of last night. Business was very quiet toward the middle of the day and a bullish weekly weather report failed to exert any immediate influence but in the last hour Wall street shorts became active buyers of August and October and the market reached the highest point in the late trading when the more active positions sold 7 to 12 points net higher. The close was a shade off from the top under realizing. During the early trading there was much talk of a low barometer northwest of the belt might mean a renewal of rain in the South, but later the view appeared to be taken that the rains would move northeastward and the western belt forecast was for generally fair and warmer weather, the eastern belt expecting only scattering showers. Southern spot markets officially reported early were unchanged to 1-4 higher. Reports from mill circles indicated further curtailment in the manufacture of cotton goods and private advices from Boston said that spinners at Lowell will be the exception of those employes by a mill that had gone on a strike for a 1 0per cent increase in wages. Receipts 4,825 bales at the ports against 5,067 last week and 6,166 last year. For the week 30,000 bales against 27,519 last week and 35,785 last year.

Today's receipts at New Orleans, 1,395 bales against 1,176 last year, and at Houston 668 bales against 447 last year.

A SLUGGISH DAY FOR STOCKS

Price Movement on the Market Was Hardly More Than Adrift—Railroad Bill Would Not Influence the Trading.

New York, June 14.—The movement of prices in the stock market today was hardly more than adrift. The board room traders with their utmost diligence were able to find but scanty material on which to base operations. Their own transactions were responsible for the sluggish price movement and when they found that these were not gaining any recruits they desisted from pursuing them and reversed their operations. A slow upward movement dragged itself out and then yielded on a diminishing scale of dealings under this process.

Some attempt was made to bring in the pending passage of the railroad bill as an influence in the trading. The morning advance was accompanied by professions of satisfaction on the part of the board room element over the approaching end of the struggle and by expressed hopes that public agitation of measures against the railroads would quiet down afterwards. On the part of the railroads themselves, however, there was an announcement through accredited agents of publicity indicating a persistence in a policy of complaint over legislative conditions and the rate adjustment with the government authorities. This appeared in the claims of the necessity for further rate advances in order to enlist needed capital for the conduct of their business. Pending the settlement of the rate question there is the fear that demand for stocks and bonds will be impaired amongst foreign investors, esepcially. The weekly bulletin of the weather reported unfavorable crop weather over most of the country and the cotton market was influenced by similar reports today. An extra dividend of 2 per cent. declared by the Central Railroad of New Jersey, gave rise to efforts to fix a regular periodicity for these extra disbursements. A 4 per cent. yearly dividend was declared also on Mobile & Ohio, compared with only 2 1-2 in 1909. These announcements were without influence on the general tone of the market.

A slightly firmer tone in the call loan market was connected, possibly, with the call on Atchison convertible bonds underwriters for payment of 25 per cent. of their subscriptions. The foreign exchange market was lower today.

Bonds were steady. Total sales par value $2,007,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day 325,600 shares.

Weekly Crop Report Gave Life to Yesterday's Market—Europe.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, June 14.—Europe again showed strength but it was not until after the publication of the weekly crop report that our market showed any life. Then under a demand from Wall street for the old crop and from Liverpool for the new, the market advanced, closing steady at a small recession from the best prices. The improvement abroad is construed as an indication that Europe is disposed to buy new crop deliveries in Liverpool at this level rather than buy for forward deliveries from Southern shippers. Great uncertainty exists in banking circles as to what will be required next season from shippers on through bills of lading, as many bills have been returned unaccepted. It is hoped that the Stevens bill will pass the Senate this season to relieve the situation. Interior shippers should use their influence to bring this about if they wish to use through bills of lading. The New York Cotton Exchange has been working for this measure for the past three years. The bill has passed the House and is now before the Snate.

A Summer cold if neglected, is just as apt to develop into bronchitis or pneumonia as at any other season. Do not neglect it. Take Foley's Honey and Tar promptly. It loosens the cough, soothes and heals the inflamed air passages, and expels the cold from the system. Robt R. Belamy.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, June 14.—Rumors were in circulation here today that a hundred boatloads of wheat had been engaged for export. The story was ridiculed beyond credence but nevertheless had an effect in helping to frighten multitude of small speculators who had been on the selling side. YOUNG ARTIST A SUICIDE.

Ill Health Reason for Desperate Act—Leaves a Letter.

New York, June 14.—Leon Guypon, well known as an artist and illustrator, shot himself through the head in his studio here today and was found dead on the floor a revolver by his side.

H. C. Merrill, a close friend, explaining the tragedy tonight, said that Guypon had been engaged to Miss Agnes Foster, daughter of a Boston banker, but had broken the engagement because of ill health. He suffered with heart trouble and had been told by physicians that he might die at any time. Today he could stand it no longer.

Before killing himself the young artist sent to his former fiancee in Boston a check for $7,212, all the pennies I had saved," as he expressed it in a letter to his friend Merrill. In his letter to Merrill he wrote:

"Since I came back to New York for no apparent reason my heart went all to pieces again. I told you it was my throat and my stomach. I suffer more than words can describe. No doctor can help me, and I fully realize that I am doomed.

"I don't want to poison her bright happy life, yet I cannot live without her. I have fought manfully, but I am beaten. So there is but one honorable path open to me and I shall calmly step into it because my conscience is clear."

When a heavy envelope on a table near the body was opened the artist's will, written in his own hand, was found. It said in part: "This is my last will.

"I am an orphan and have no blood relatives. After my death do not look for my money, as I have already disposed of it.

"All my pictures and all my belongings I give to Agnes Foster of No. 41 Winthrop street, Boston, Mass., and to Mr. Hiram C. Merrill, of New York. They may divide them amicably between them or sell them, or give them to friends, or do whatever they wish with them.

"I desire to be cremated and my ashes thrown to the four winds."

DEATH LIST GROWS.

Thirty-Four Victims in Montreal Fire —Heroism.

Montreal, June 14.—The addition of five names to the list of missing of those who were in the Herald building yesterday when the sprinkler tank collapsed now makes it practically certain that the death list will run up to 34. So far only nine bodies have been recovered. All have been identified but one, the exception being that of a woman burned so badly that identification is practically impossible.

The coroner's inquest is open tomorrow and an effort is to be made to learn how it was that the collapse occurred and if possible to fix the responsibility.

New stories of heroism have come to light. Miss Laura Amesso, the forewoman of the Herald bindery, might easily have saved herself had she not been so intent on saving others. Urged to descend a fireman's ladder she refused declaring: "There are other girls in there that I must get out."

Time and again she went back into the blazing ruins and assisted terror-stricken girls to a place of safety. Suddenly she disappeared.

IN SESSION AT LUMBERTON.

Missionary Union of Fayetteville Presbytery—Heavy Rains.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., June 14.—The Ladies Foreign Missionary Union of Fayetteville Presbytery, composed of nine counties, convened in the Lumberton Presbyterian Church tonight at 8:15. The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. A. E. Baker, pastor, and was responded to by Rev. J. M. Curtis, of Hamlet, evangelist of the Presbytery. Dr. Phillips, of Richmond, Va., will preach tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, and Rev. Hamer McMillan, of Atlanta, Ga., will preach tomorrow night at 8:15. On Thursday morning at 11 o'clock a sermon will be delivered by Evangelist Curtis, and at night Dr. Chester, of Augusta, Ga., will preach the closing sermon of the meeting.

A large number of delegates and visitors have arrived during the day and many more are expected on the night and morning trains. Lumberton people extend the visitors a most cordial welcome and will endeavor to make their visit a pleasant one.

Preparations for the citizens' banquet to be given Thursday night are well advanced and indications are that this will be the greatest affair of the kind which has ever been attempted in Lumberton.

Mr. Redfern, of Wadesboro, the newly elected Lumberton chief of police spent the day in town. He expects to enter upon his duties July 1st.

the giving of three notices to the commission and to the Attorney General and that the suspension should not be for more than 60 days. The Senate provision that all parties in interest to a proceeding before the commission parties in proceedings in the commerce ment, was stricken out, but the provisions of both the House and Senate bills in regard to the appearance of parties in proceedings i the commerce court by intervening or on motion or otherwise was retained.

Under a Senate amendment adopted every railroad will be required to designate an agent in Washington to receive service in any proceeding against the railroads. The conference report retains the House provision requiring railroads to provide reasonable facilities for opening through rates and for the exchange and return of rolling stock used therein.

It also retains the House provision requiring railroads to establish and enforce reasonable classification of property for transportation and regulations and practices affecting classifications, rates, or tariffs, tickets receipts and bills of lading.

The provision placing telegraph, telephone and cable companies under the jurisdiction of the commission is that adopted by the House with a further provision agreed upon in conference that messages may be classified into day, night, repeated, unrepeated, letter, commercial, press, government and such other classes as are just and reasonable, and authorizing different rates to be charged for different classes of messages. In respect to the use of telephone, telegraph and cable franks, it is provided that they shall not be prohibited when asked by officers, agents, employes and their families of corporations within the scope of the inter-state commerce act.

The House provision for the information of the physical valuation of railroad property was stricken out, but the amendment authorizing the owner of a lateral branch line of railroad, to require a main line of railroad to make proper connections, was retained.

To the House provision on the subject of long and short hauls, which is designed to prohibit railroads from charging a higher rate for a shorter than for a longer distance, was added the following:

"Whenever a carrier by railroad shall in competition with a water route or routes reduce the rates on the carriage of any species of freight to or from competitive points, it shall not be permitted to increase such rates unless after hearing by the Inter-state Commerce Commission it shall be found that such proposed increase rests upon changed conditions other than the elimnation of water competition."

This provision was adopted in lieu of far more radical provis.ons introduced by Senator Simmons and Burton and adopted by the Senate.

The House amendment to Section 10 of the Inter-State Commerce Act to prescribe a penalty for attempting to obtain advantage in the matter of rates the same as for actually obtaining it through false representations etc., was retained. The conferees also accepted the House provision striking out the specific language of the present law as to the character of objects about which complaints may be filed before the commission and authorizing the commission to make investigations on its own motion to the same extent as though complaint had been filed.

In retaining the Senate provisions authorizing the suspension of an increased rate for a period of ten months and putting the burden of proof upon the railroad as to the reasonableness of such increase, the conferees added a provision as follows:

"The commission shall give to the hearing and decvision of such question preference over all other questions, pending before it and decide the same as speedily as possible."

The House provision authorizing the House committee to make through routes through suburban or interurban or steam railroads was retained, as was the Senate provision given to the shipper the right to say over what railroads his freight should be routed.

Railroads and their agents will be prohibited, through the retention of a Senate amendment from disclosing information concerning a shipper's business except under due processes of courts. The penalty for violations of this provision were fixed by the conferees at not more than $1,000 for each offense.

Senator Overman's amendment in reference to interlocutory injunctions restraining the action of the state officers upon the ground of the unconstitutionality of state statutes was accepted by the conferees.

Both the House and Senate provide that the new law should take effect after the expiration of 60 days after its passage. The conferees, however, inserted a provision that Section 12, including the right of the commission to suspend proposed increases in rates, and section 16, which authorizes the commission to appoint a commission to study stocks and bonds shall take effect immediately upon the approval of the Act.

The conference was organized today and will continue throughout the week. R. W. Moore is the chairman of the conference. Other officers present are H. BOLD ROBBERY

Winston-Salem Store is Entered and $700 in Merchandise Stolen.

Winston-Salem, June 14.—The store of Boyles Brothers, on Trade street was entered by three men last night and about $700 worth of merchandise was carried away and over $2,500 worth of merchandise was scattered over the floor, being piled up as high as two feet in some places. Entrance was effected from the rear by the use of a ladder and breaking out a glass. The burglars left a note saying that they "had just left."

COTTON MILL EMPLOYMENT.

Women and Children in Cotton Textile Industry—Comparison.

Washington, June 14.—The report of the Bureau of Labor on the employment of women and children in the cotton textile industry was sent to Congress today by Secretary Nagel, of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

A summary of the report prepared by the bureau shows that in 46 New England mills investigated 43.3 per cent. of all the operatives were females over 16 years, and that the .2 per cent. were children under 16 years while in 152 Southern mills women constituted 27 per cent. of the total and children 20 per cent. The greater percentage of children in the Southern States is accounted for by the fact that at the time of the investigation it was legal and customary in those States to employ children 12 and 13 years, while in New England employment could not legally begin before 14 years.

The average hours worked in a week, which was selected as representative in the New England mills was 50.7 for the male operatives and 50.1 for the female. In the Southern States the average was 50.3 for the male operatives and 50.6 for the female.

Of the male operatives of all ages competing with women and children in the New England mills 48.6 per cent. earned less than $7 a week, while 55.5 per cent. of the females earned less than that amount. In the Southern mills 74.9 per cent. of the male operatives in occupations competing with women and children earned less than $7. Of the female operatives of all ages in the Southern mills 86.1 per cent. earned less than $7.

PAPKE DEFEATS GOODALE.

Knocked Him Out in Second Round. Goodale Outclassed.

Kansas City, Ma., June 14.—Billy Papke defeated Al Goodale in the second round of their fight tonight, but whether he knocked him out will probably never be known. Goodale says he was out. Referee Leo Shay was not satisfied with Goodale's showing and disqualified him.

The end of the fight came one minute and 22 seconds after the beginning of the second round. At the tap of the gong Papke rushed from his corner and sent his opponent down for the count of nine with a right swing to the jaw. Goodale rose with great difficulty and hung on to Papke. They wrestled about the ring, Papke landing two light taps on Goodale's jaw.

Suddenly Goodale sank to his knees and clutched the ropes. Papke grasped him by the right arm and appeared to be trying to lift him to his feet. Being unsuccessful, Papke motioned the time keeper to ring the bell. A general mix-up between fighters, referee and seconds followed. After 15 seconds elapsed one of Goodale's handlers threw a sponge into the ring. The disqualification followed.

Goodale never appeared to have a chance with former middle weight champion. He outweighed Papke about 10 pounds, but never during the fight did Goodale land a clean blow.

Spectators were incensed at the outcome and hissed Goodale roundly as they left the building.

CORPORATION TAX PAYMENT.

Resolution in Senate to Postpone Date of Collection to January.

Washington, June 14.—A resolution introduced in the Senate today by Mr. Cullom postponing to January 1st the date of the payment of the corporation tax because of the delay of the Supreme Court in passing on its constitutionality for a time caused a flurry in official circles. The treasury expected to collect $27,000,000 from the tax during the present calendar year, which would be expended for the ordinary business of the government.

To be deprived of it would necessitate an issue of 3 per cent. certificates of indebtedness or of Panama Canal bonds.

Late in the afternoon there was a feeling of relief when the news spread that Mr. Cullom had presented the resolution "by request" and that he did not intend to press it to consideration.

The President expressed his emphatic disapproval of the plan involved in the Cullom resolution as did Attorney General Wickersham. The latter said he never had any doubt of the constitutionality of the law imposing the tax.

Financially a situation caused by the loss of the $27,000,000 could be easily met for the Secretary of the Treasury has authority to issue not exceeding $3,000,000,000 3 per cent. certificates of indebtedness to meet current expenditures and he likewise may emit $290,569,000 Panama Canol 3 per cent. bonds. Thus far $1,200,796 has been collected from the tax.

TRAGEDY AT DILLON, S. C.

Young Lawyer Shot by Hotel Proprietor Yesterday.

Dillon, S. C., June 14.—Sidney Hursey, a young lawyer of this place, was shot three times and mortally wounded as he left the court room here this afternoon, by Rochard S. Davis, who, with his wife, conducts the Central Hotel here. Davis immediately after the shooting gave himself up and the only explanation he gave of the tragedy was the statement that Hursey ruined his home.

Hursey is an unmarried man and the son of a merchant in Dillon. Davis is prominently connected.

Richmond, Va., June 14.—Junius Nelson Taylor, 62 years old, was struck, this afternoon, at Eighth and Grace streets here by an automobile driven by Thomas S. Andrews and almost instantly killed The driver seemed to have done everything possible to avoid the accident.

EDINBURGH CONFERENCE.

Opened in Scotland Yesterday—Protestant Churches Represented.

Edinburgh, Scotland, June 14.—The World's Missionary Conference, a representative gathering of Protestant churches opened here today. There are 1,200 accredited delegates and 2,000 other representatives of churches and missions present. The session will continue until June 13th, and all phases of missionary work among the non-Christian people will be considered. The conference is unique in that it is designed to give representatives of all Christian churches an opportunity for an open discussion of missionary problems without binding the delegates as a whole to any particular policy. The conference opened today was arranged by an executive committee representing different countries and acting jointly. There are 500 official American delegates present and 500 representatives of American missionary societies. The convention voted to sit in the deliberative sessions which will begin tomorrow, as a committee of the whole, under the chairmanship of John R. Mitt, of New York, general secretary of the World's Student Christian Federation.

The University of Edinburgh has conferred the degree of doctor of laws on six of the delegates, including Seth Low, the former President of Columbia University, New York; John R. Mott, General James A. Beaver, of Bellefont, Pa., and the Archbishop of Canterbury.
